ORIGINAL ENGLISH TITLES

Christian Life

Church Membership in the Bible

This book answers many questions about churches and church membership in New Testament times. Next to having a real walk with Christ and knowing the doctrines of the faith, membership of a good church has a powerful formative influence on the believer's life.
63 pages, paperback | MAST19 | £1.75

Faith, Doubts, Trials & Assurance

Ongoing faith is essential for answered prayer, effective service, spiritual stability and real communion with God. In this book many questions are answered about faith, such as – How may we assess the state of our faith? How can we tell if troubles are intended to chastise or to refine? What can be done to obtain assurance? Dr Masters provides answers, with much pastoral advice, drawing on Scripture throughout.
139 pages, paperback | MAST16 | £4.50

God's Rules for Holiness Unlocking the Ten Commandments

The Commandments are far greater than their surface meaning, and a source of challenge and inspiration when their full sense is seen. They provide positive virtues as goals, and give immense help for staying close to the Lord in our walk and worship.
141 pages, paperback | MAST12 | £4.50

Steps for Guidance in the Journey of Life

God's guidance has become

Vital Issues

controversial. Some say that God does not have a specific plan for the lives of His people, but allows us to please ourselves.

By contrast, this book presents the time-honoured, scriptural view that Christians must seek God's will in all the major decisions of life. Six essential steps are traced from the Bible, and principles are given on additional practical issues. Here is a strong challenge to authentic Christian commitment, with an abundance of pastoral advice.

134 pages, paperback | MAST21 | £4.50

The Faith

There is nothing like this popular, non-technical sweep through key themes of the Christian faith, highlighting very many inspiring and enlivening points. It often takes an unusual approach to a topic in order to bring out the full wonder and significance. It is designed to be enjoyed by seasoned Christians, and also by all who want to explore the great features of the faith, and discover the life of the soul.

119 pages, paperback | MAST18 | £3.50

The Lord's Pattern for Prayer

This volume is almost a manual on prayer, providing a real spur to the devotional life. Chapters cover each petition of the Lord's Prayer. Here, too, are sections on remedies for problems in prayer, how to intercede for others, the reasons why God keeps us waiting for answers, and the nature of the prayer of faith.

118 pages, paperback | MAST10 | £3.50

The Personal Spiritual Life

From the personal indwelling of the Holy Spirit to living a life of commitment these chapters stir and encourage readers to advance spiritually. In what sense may we 'feel' the presence of the Lord?

What was the apostle Paul's method for progress in holiness? How may we identify our spiritual gifts? These are among the themes of this tonic for present-day disciples of Christ.

127 pages, paperback | MAST20 | £3.50

Not Like Any Other Book Interpreting the Bible

A new approach to interpretation has gripped many evangelical seminaries and Bible colleges, an approach based on the ideas of unbelieving critics. This reveals what is happening, providing examples of right and wrong interpretation, and showing that the Bible includes its own rules of interpretation, and we should know what these are.

161 pages, paperback | MAST14 | £5.00

Physicians of Souls

The Gospel Ministry

Even where the free offer of the Gospel is treasured in principle, regular evangelistic preaching has become a rarity, contends the author. These pages tackle the inhibitions, theological and practical, and provide powerful encouragement for physicians of souls to preach the Gospel. A vital anatomy or order of conversion is supplied with advice for counselling seekers.

285 pages, paperback | MAST09 | £6.50

The New Calvinists

Changing the Gospel

E S Williams

This book reveals the new 'gospel' of the so-called 'new Calvinism'. It is a gospel that changes the terms of salvation, and that loves the world and embraces its culture. Here are the objectives of the new Calvinists, taken from their own words.

74 pages, paperback | WILL20 | £2.95

Worship in the Melting Pot

This book presents four essential principles of worship laid down by Christ and strongly reaffirmed at the Reformation. It is surely by these that all new ideas should be assessed. Here also is a fascinating view of how they worshipped in Bible times, including their rules for the use of instruments, and the question is answered – What does the Bible teach about the content and order of a service of worship today?

148 pages, paperback | MAST06 | £5.00

Biblical Archaeology

Heritage of Evidence

The British Museum holds a huge number of major discoveries that provide direct corroboration and background confirmation for an immense sweep of Bible history. This illustrated survey of Bible-authenticating exhibits has been designed as a guide for visitors, and also to give pleasure and interest to readers unable to tour the galleries.

127 pages, 135 colour illustrations, paperback | MAST05 | £5.00

Books of Bible

Joshua's Conquest

This is a book for reading, rather than a commentary. Its aim is to bring out the spiritual message of the Book of Joshua for today, and also to explain some of the 'problem' portions and passages which evoke questions on, for example, the morality of so much killing, and whether God was responsible for hardening the hearts of the Canaanites.

119 pages, paperback | MAST15 | £3.50

The Mutual Love of Christ & His People

The courtship of the Song of Solomon provides fascinating scenes and events designed to show the love of Christ for His redeemed people, and theirs for Him. Prophecies of Christ abound. Here, also, are lessons for Christians when they become cold or backslidden, showing the way to recover Christ's presence in their lives.

115 pages, paperback | MAST13 | £3.50

Half-hours with William Hendriksen

Stirring, heart-warming devotional surveys of Romans, Philippians, Luke and Revelation from a renowned Bible commentator who excelled in 'combining quality of scholarship with simplicity of expression'. As great examples of 'the art of taking sublime truths and helping people feel them in their hearts', these surveys will greatly reward all who love the infallible Word of God.

103 pages, paperback | HEND05 | £3.00

C H Spurgeon

Sunlight for Cloudy Days

C H Spurgeon

Fourteen heartwarming messages to encourage and challenge drawn mainly from prayer meeting addresses, with some from Sunday sermons, given at the Metropolitan Tabernacle.

124 pages, paperback | SPUR100 | £3.50

Classic Counsels

C H Spurgeon

These choice messages cover aspects of personal spiritual experience together with Christian responsibilities, in Spurgeon's distinctively compelling and uplifting style.

126 pages, paperback | SPUR41 | £3.50

The Suffering Letters of C H Spurgeon

These remarkable letters, written from a suffering pastor to his congregation, abound in exhortations to godliness, zeal and prayer. They provide a unique insight into Spurgeon's life, and into the fervent soul-winning activity which was, alongside the preaching, a leading feature of an historic Calvinistic church.

Notes on Spurgeon's ministry set the letters in context, and several classic sermonettes written during sickness are included, along with 16 pages of colour pictures of original letters.

155 pages, paperback | SPUR46 | £4.50

History & Biography

William Carey

S. Pearce Carey

The classic biography of William Carey (1761-1834). These compelling pages convey the very atmosphere of that extraordinary period of missionary advance. How Carey and his colleagues overcame mountainous obstacles to become the most productive church planters and Bible translators of all time, will stir the hearts of young and old alike.

437 pages, illustrated paperback | CARE01 | £9.95

Men of Destiny

The 40th anniversary edition of this immensely popular collection of great Christian biography. Here are the lives of fourteen remarkable people having in common a personal spiritual experience which changed and molded them. Includes Sir James Simpson (the discoverer of anaesthetic chloroform), Martin Luther, Alfred the Great and Tsar Alexander Pavlovich. Ideal for giving as a gift to unsaved friends, and useful for preachers and youth leaders.

166 pages, illustrated paperback | MAST07 | £5.00

Men of Purpose

Eleven great lives, all with an experience of personal conversion to God. Composer Mendelssohn, food industrialist Henry Heinz and some of the most celebrated scientists of all time are among the examples of leading people whose lives were changed by a sight of real Christianity.

Contending for the Faith

David G Fountain

What lay behind the dramatic collapse into modernism of the main Nonconformist denominations of England? This unique book presents the remarkable life of E. J. Poole-Connor, whose ministry spanned this most turbulent period in British church life, from the time of Spurgeon to the 1960s. Interwoven with biography, David Fountain provides a fast-moving overview of what happened and why. 174 pages, paperback | FOUN05 | £5.00

Counselling

The Dark Side of Christian Counselling

Dr E S Williams

It is amazing how rapidly the Christian counselling movement has spread through churches, teaching that hurts and depressions once considered part of normal life are illnesses to be treated. In this book medical doctor Ted Williams challenges these claims, giving a clear-cut and interesting overview of the counselling movement. Nowhere else are of the great names of secular psychology so clearly critiqued from a Christian point of view.

Christ or Therapy?

For Depression & Life's Troubles

Dr E S Williams

There is an irreconcilable difference between the remedies for sadness and grief set out in the Bible and those put forward by the world of psychotherapy. A gulf also exists between the biblical policy for marriage, and that proposed by secular marriage guidance psychologists. This book shows what the differences are, including a remarkable review of depression in the Bible, and its relief.

Long-Established Titles

The Healing Epidemic

New Condensed Edition

Dr Masters answers the arguments used by healers in support of their methods. He explains Bible teaching on what demons can and cannot do, and how James 5 should be implemented in churches today. He also proves that the conscious mind should always be switched on for spiritual activities. Included is a brilliant assessment of miraculous healing by a leading British medical professor.

142 pages, paperback | MAST93 | £4.50

The Charismatic Phenomenon

Peter Masters & John C Whitcomb

The authors describe the purpose of the sign-miracles and revelatory gifts of New Testament times, and their precise nature. Were they intended to be ongoing in the life of the church? Numerous questions are here answered, such as, "What exactly are the greater works of John 14.12?" and "Are the signs following, referred to in Mark 16, for today?" This work has been helpful to many thousands, having passed through numerous printings in English, and having been translated into many other languages.
