

Esau Sells His Share in God's Plan

Rebekah is having twins. The babies are fighting inside her. "What is happening to me?"

God says: "The leaders of two nations are inside you. They will be divided.

The older one will serve the younger one"

Esau is born first, then Jacob.

Esau and Jacob are different.

Esau loves to go to the field and hunt.

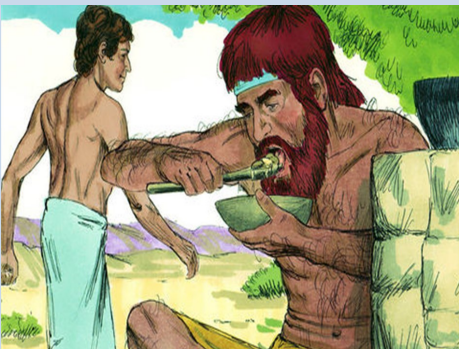

Jacob loves to stay at home and help his mother.

Jacob cooks lentil stew. Esau is hungry.

"Give me some of that stew!"

Jacob says: "Give me your rights as the firstborn son ("birthright") and I will give you stew".

Esau does not care about God's promise.

He does not care about the coming Saviour. He just wants food.

He gives Jacob his birthright for stew.

Jacob receives the blessing from his father.

Esau misses the blessing. He is unhappy and begs his father but it cannot be changed.

Read: Hebrews chapter 12 verses 16-17:

...And be careful that no one is like Esau and never thinks about God.

As the oldest son, Esau would have inherited everything from his father. But he sold all that for a single meal.
